Case Presentation

Aortic Stenosis

Vinay Badhwar, MD

Gordon F. Murray Professor and Chairman
Department of Cardiovascular & Thoracic Surgery
WVU Heart and Vascular Institute
West Virginia University
Morgantown, WV
74 yo male, active farmer, living with ailing wife
- Diet controlled diabetes mellitus
- New hypertension started on ACE by PCP
- Creatinine 1.6, sent to nephrologist
- Loud murmur picked up by nephrologist
- Admits to pre-syncope and exertional chest pain
- Referred to Valve Clinic for TAVR evaluation
- STS PROM 3.96%
What would you do?
A) Intermediate Risk TAVR
B) Watchful waiting
C) SAVR sternotomy
D) SAVR minimally invasive